You are invited...

Join us at the 2024 Annual meeting of the Association of Anatomy, Cell Biology and Neurobiology Chairs. Members of AACBNC are decision-makers, planners, scientists, educators, and budget holders. Exhibitors get a chance to interact directly with members during all 3 days of the meeting, and also at social events. At the 2023 meeting in St. Petersburg, FL, attendees controlled a total budget of $90.2m in their respective departments.

Who should exhibit?

Manufacturers, suppliers, content developers and publishers of classroom teaching aids, medical and basic medical science textbooks and scientific journals, laboratory equipment including virtual microscopes, interactive software, eLearning modules, anatomical simulation models and virtual and augmented reality applications.
